CITY MAY BECOME
AIRPLANE CENTER

Location for Aerial Navigation is as Favorable as for Steam and Traction Transportation.

LANDING FIELD IN PROSPECT

Chamber of Commerce Keeping in Touch With Proposed Indianapolis-Miami, Fla., Route.

The importance of aerial navigation in the future is already well recognized and the principal cities of the country are already turning their attention to the question just as they did years ago when steam transportation was in its infancy. The Seymour Chamber of Commerce is keeping in close touch with aerial transportation developments and the officers are of the opinion that this city is just as favorably located to become a center in aerial navigation as it is for steam and traction service.

Principal attention now is focused on the proposed airship route between Indianapolis and Miami, Fla., which is the aim of Carl Fisher, of Indianapolis, a man of practical vision. This city has been informed that a location is desired here as a landing field as it is proposed that the through airplanes will make only one stop between Indianapolis and Louisville and this is regarded as the logical half way point. To many people such a plan sounds "like a dream," but to others it appears very practical. Many are certain that the airship course between the north and the south will become a reality within a few years and Seymour desires to be ready to take advantage of any opportunity along that line that is offered.

A special committee has been appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to look after the location of the proposed landing field and several sites are contemplated. Claude Carter is chairman of the committee and has informed the directors that he is in close touch with developments and is ready to show the promoters of the proposed airship line several sites whenever they desire to inspect them.

According to the original plan that was mapped out, the site of the landing field would not be purchased, but the owners would be paid a stated amount for each plane that landed. At the beginning, this compensation would be small, but as the transportation increased and new planes were added to the lines the revenue would be considerable. The owner, it is stated, might keep the ground in such crops as clover or grass as the damage from the landing planes would be comparatively small.

It is understood that the plans for the establishment of the north to south aerial transportation service are advancing and that the promoters expect to have several planes in action within a few months. The time would vary according to weather conditions, but a normal schedule would be such that a Seymour man might board the plane here about 8 o'clock, a. m. and arrive in Miami, Fla., for a late evening dinner the same day. Freight planes are also proposed as a part of the equipment to be used between the Indiana capital and the Florida resort city.

SOLDIERS GOOD HUNTERS.

Army Service Encourages Use of Firearms.

By United Press
Boston, December 5.—Hundreds of former soldiers are having their first thrills of hunting in the woods and mountains of New England this season, according to game wardens and license clerks.

These officials say that with their knowledge of firearms gained in the army, many men who never hunted before are enthusiastically on the trail of game this year. The increase in the number of hunters and their skill in handling guns is reflected in the unusually large kill of deer, moose and bears, the haul being particularly heavy in Northern Maine and New Hampshire.

SEND CHRISTMAS
PACKAGES EARLY

Attention Is Called to Congested Mail Conditions That Result During Holiday Rush.

BUSINESS IS INCREASING

Parcels Will Not Be Accepted at Local Postoffice Unless They Contain Return Address.

With Christmas only sixteen days away, the public's attention is being called to the necessity of mailing Christmas packages early to assure prompt delivery. Large placards are on display in the postoffice lobby encouraging the public to mail their packages early.

Allen Swope, postmaster, stated today that the Christmas holiday rush has started, as already a number of packages that have to travel a long distance before reaching their destination, have been mailed. However, the rush generally starts in earnest about December 15.

Postmaster Swope stated that it is very essential that packages be mailed as early as possible as it not only assures prompt delivery but also helps to lessen the work thrust on the postoffice employees throughout the United States which reaches its height a few days before Christmas and many times packages cannot be delivered on time as a result.

Postmaster Swope announced today that no packages would be received at the local postoffice this year unless they contained the sender's name and address as is required by the parcel post laws. In former years the employees at the local postoffice have handled packages that had no return address on them, and rather than hold them up they made an attempt to send them through, which usually caused more or less trouble.

There is no excuse for any one not complying with the law, Mr. Swope stated, and those who fail to comply with the ruling can rest assured that their packages will not leave the local postoffice. "Persons who desire to conceal their identity should send their packages by freight," Mr. Swope stated.

The local postoffice employees predict a big Christmas business this year and are making plans to take care of it in the best manner possible.

Friendly Enemies.

"Friendly Enemies," the famous international comedy success which A. H. Woods will present at the Majestic Theater tonight not only received a glowing endorsement from President Wilson, which was published throughout the English-speaking world and from the press and public of three continents, but from other notable men who have gone out of their way to lend their approval to this magnificent American comedy.

William Churchill, director of the division of foreign language publications in the Creel bureau, said of "Friendly Enemies."

"I shall not comment upon the dramatic quality of the play, appealing as it is. To me it transcends the qualities which come within the province of the ordinary dramatic critic. It is the picture of the deep loyalty of those German-Americans to the land of their own or their fathers' adoption and it will energize the expression of that loyalty; to the rest of us it will prove of the utmost value in teaching that the German-Americans to tear the hyphen from the name; that no longer will they remain apart in race consciousness; that citizens of German source are with us all as Americans zealous to save the rights of humanity in freedom of life thought."

ENGINEERS FIND
ANCIENT NIAGARA

Discovery Made While Workmen Were Excavating for Welland Ship Canal.

By United Press

Thorold, Ontario, December 5.—What engineers believe is an ancient Niagara Falls, which has been buried for thousands of years, has been uncovered here during the course of excavations for the new Welland Ship canal.

The "skeleton" of this great prehistoric cataract, according to engineers in charge of construction, was fully as wide and probably had a greater fall than the present Niagara Falls.

The first indications of the former cataract came to light when workmen uncovered a series of ledges in the form of steps with a total drop of 25 feet and a width of 400 feet. The rock from this point sloped sharply and at a distance of about 100 feet from the end of the ledges showed a depth of 75 feet. Here was discovered what is believed to have been the main precipice over which the rushing water plunged hundreds of feet to its bed below.

The surface of the rock showed unmistakable signs of having been worn smooth by the action of water rushing over it for countless years.

There is nothing in history that mentions this former cataract, but experts believe it once formed the chief link between Lake Erie and Lake Ontario. Eight Mile Creek, a small stream, now flows over part of the course of the prehistoric waterway, and this in turn will soon become the new ship canal.

JAIL CELL HELD TO BE
CURE FOR STUBBORNNESS

Indianapolis Probate Officer Has Way of Dealing With Husbands So Afflicted.

By United Press

Indianapolis, December 5.—A cell in a jail is the best remedy for curing "stubbornness" of a husband who fails to make proper provisions for his wife and children.

This is the opinion of R. D. Thomas, adult probation officer in the Indianapolis courts. Thomas has handled hundreds of cases of stubborn husbands during the five years since he began his work with the department.

"As soon as a stubborn husband is in jail a reform wave starts at once," Thomas asserted. "Then he generally discovers that he loves his wife and he pleads for another chance. The husband then generally follows up with letters to me and his wife asking for a parole. They promise anything while they are in jail."

Seventy-six men sent to jail during Thomas' term of office have become reconciled to their wives, bought homes on the installment plan and are living a life of domesticity today, Thomas said.

PEACE USE FOR WAR GAS MASK

There are many industries where men work in the immediate vicinity of deadly gases, such as sulphuric acid, nitric, and hydrochloric acids, and the gas mask, slightly modified from its army design, is found an efficient preventive against injury from these fumes. Our photograph shows a workman repairing a break in an ammonia refrigerating plant, the mask protecting him from the noxious fumes.

Secretary of State Announces No Number Plates Will Be Mailed Until After Dec. 25.

TO AVOID MAIL CONGESTION

Many Auto Owners Here Making Application Now in Order to Avoid Long Delay.

Automobile number plates which were issued by the secretary of state for the current year become void after January 1, and many automobile and truck owners here are making application now for new licenses. Commercial trucks and pleasure automobiles that are operated throughout the year are required to have the 1920 plates after January 1. In the past city authorities here have not enforced the law until about March 1 but this is purely a local practice, which has been followed to give all automobile owners ample opportunity to get their plates.

Delivery of license plates this year will not be made before December 25, according to announcement from the office of the secretary of state. Although the new plates are ready for distribution, the department will not start mailing them until after the Christmas rush, because of a request by postoffice officials.

The 1920 plates have a buff background and olive green numerals. A distinctive plate has been prepared for trucks and delivery cars. On these plates the word "truck" is stamped perpendicularly on the left side. Because of the complaint of the 1918-1919 plates were too light to withstand a car's vibration, the new plates have been made of .26-gauge steel.

Application blanks have been distributed to all notaries public, automobile dealers and garages in the state and may be filed at any time with the state department. The plates will be mailed free of charge by the state. No checks will be accepted unless certified.

The total receipts for automobile licenses this year now amounts to $1,558,000. More than 50,000 licenses have been obtained this year in excess of the 1918 record. The normal increase in cars and the increased fees for trucks in 1920 will make the collections for next year considerably higher.

Heretofore the money that has been paid by the motorists of Indiana for license plates has been distributed among the counties according to the amount paid in, the number miles of improved roads and population. Under this law, Jackson county has always received more than was paid in by local motorists.

Next year, however, the receipts way commission and Jackson county will be turned over to the state highway will lose about $15,000, which was formerly received for maintenance of roads. The highway commission will spend this money on road work and this county will receive its share, according to the improvement program already laid out for the next two years.

SWISS CURRENCY
NETS BIG PROFIT

Switzerland Becomes Seat of Fantastic Finance As a Result of the World War.

NO DEPRECIATION IN MONEY

Little Country of Neutrality Becomes Sort of an Oasis in Desert of Financial Disaster.

By United Press
Berne, Switzerland, December 5.—As a result of the war turning topsy-turvy the world's basis of values, especially in the matter of foreign exchange, Switzerland has become the seat of the most fantastic finance the world has yet seen.

By not having participated in the war, Switzerland's financial, industrial and economic condition at the present time is one to be envied—no matter how much the Swiss themselves may deplore it. Especially as the result of not having contracted any war debts or expenditures and of not having made any unlimited issues of paper currency with which to tide over the war period, Swiss currency has remained almost unaffected by the crisis of foreign exchange and the depreciation of currencies from which all the belligerents are now severely suffering.

Five francs of Swiss money today are worth just about $1, the same as they were before the war, where from eight to ten or twenty francs of other countries are necessary to purchase a single greenback of the minimum denomination.

As a consequence Switzerland, the only country in Central Europe which retains something of its normal financial standing, has become a sort of an oasis in a desert of financial disaster. It is a sort of clearing house, or solid financial rock where the bewildered people of other countries can come for the time being and get their financial balance readjusted and their sense of values re-established, before embarking on new financial enterprises.

The resulting operations are often weird and fantastic to the extreme degree, resembling something in unexpectedness the high financial adventures of America and yet always with a different note. These financial Odysseys happen by the score in Switzerland daily. Here are a few that will give some idea of what they are like and some idea of central Europe's shipwreck.

Recently a Czecho-Slovak deputy had occasion to come down to Switzerland for a few weeks to take care of a number of important affairs concerning that ambitious but financeless republic. To meet his expenses on the trip he brought with him 30,000 Czecho-Slovak crowns, the nominal value of which is about the same as a Swiss franc.

However with the money of his own country exceedingly depreciated by the war and the lack of any solid standing to date of the new republic, the deputy was obliged to change his 30,000 native crowns into only 10,000 Swiss francs.

The deputy stayed at Berne for about two months stopping, as his position rendered necessary, at the principal hotel in the city, the prices at which have not been decreased by the war, and paying his expenses out of his 10,000 Swiss francs.

Eventually, however, his business completed and he was ready to return to Prague. He paid off what he still owed in Berne out of the original 10,000 Swiss francs and then what was left he had changed back into Czecho-Slovak crowns.

But in the two months which he had been at Berne, Czecho-Slovak currency had gone down further with the result that when he got what was left of his original Swiss francs changed he received a total of 42,000 Czecho-Slovak crowns or 12,000 more than the original 30,000.

Here is another—and which is a matter of official record.

Several months ago a company was organized at Berne for launching a big illustrated political weekly magazine at Vienna. Swiss capitalists who had made a fortune out of Characters—A husband and wife.

Wife—Five dollars used to last a week for groceries, but it hardly buys a single steak now.
Husband—Yep, you know everything has gone up. The farmers get more, the farm hands get more, the railroads get more, the grocery clerk gets more, rents are higher. What'd you expect?
Wife—I bought a pair of shoes today for $12 that used to cost me $5 and a box of candy for $1, that used to cost me half that.
Husband—Well, you know, leather is high and so are wages, and sugar is four times what it was.
Wife—I asked about the repairs on the house today and the carpenters and plumbers want $1 an hour and the materials will be about double.
Husband—Got to expect that. You know it costs a whole lot more to run any business. Anyhow, my income's up 100 per cent since before the war.
Pause, wife reads evening paper. Suddenly comes upon small item therein.
Wife—I see the light company says it has big increases in costs and wants to raise 20 cents a month.
Husband leaps from chair in rage. "It's highway robbery!" he shouts. "I'll go down and see Alderman Smith about this and write the editor a letter that'll burn 'em up."
Wife—But, husband, how is the lighting company any different from the farmer, the grocer, shoemaker, candymaker, plumber, materials man, newspaperman, milkman, or anybody else. Doesn't coal, steel, copper, rent, taxes, wages, and everything cost it as much as it costs other people?

INTERESTING PROGRAM GIVEN BY IMPERSONATOR

Adrian M. Newens, Delights Audience With Unusual Entertainment, "Message From Mars."

Adrian M. Newens delighted an audience at the First Presbyterian church last night with an entertainment of impersonations, the "Message From Mars." It was the second number of the winter lyceum course which is presented under the auspices of the City Ministerial Association. Mr. Newens has remarkable ability as an impersonator and the portrayal of the various characters of the story was done in a highly commendable manner.

There were three principal characters in his story, a rich young man, his sweetheart and the messenger from Mars. The purpose of the impersonation was to impress the audience with the sin of selfishness. The young man was so selfish that his sweetheart broke their engagement. The rich young man was interested in a scientific study of Mars but held to a belief that whatever or whoever lived on the planet held no personal interest to him except as a matter of study. The messenger from Mars, however, shows the young man that there is no such thing as selfishness on his planet and that the aim of mankind there is to do something worth while for his fellowman. The rich young man finally loses his fortune and is then awakened to the error of his life and sets out anew to render service to his neighbors.

The audience was greatly pleased with the program and the regret of the Ministerial Association is that a larger number of people did not take advantage of the opportunity to hear Mr. Newens. Three other numbers are to be given during the winter and a special effort will be made to interest a larger number of people in the entertainments which will be brought here at a heavy cost.

BASKETBALL TEAM WILL PLAY HOPEWELL TONIGHT

Shields High School Players are Expecting Fast Game—Will Go to Waynetown Saturday.

The Shields high school team left this afternoon at 4 o'clock for Franklin where they are scheduled to meet the fast Hopewell team on the Franklin high school floor tonight. The game is being staged at Franklin as the Hopewell high school has no basketball court.

The Hopewell team is recognized as being one of the fastest in Southern Indiana and the game this evening promises to be a good one. The local team has been undergoing some rigid practice the past two weeks preparing for the game tonight and high school fans predict that they will win the game at Franklin. The Shields high school team is composed of Keach and Niehaus, forwards, Deal, center, Lewis and Steinwedel guards, Brockmeyer and Fenton substitutes.

The Shields high school quintet is scheduled to play the Waynetown high school team Saturday night and will go to that place from Franklin. The Waynetown high school has a fast team and a good game is expected.

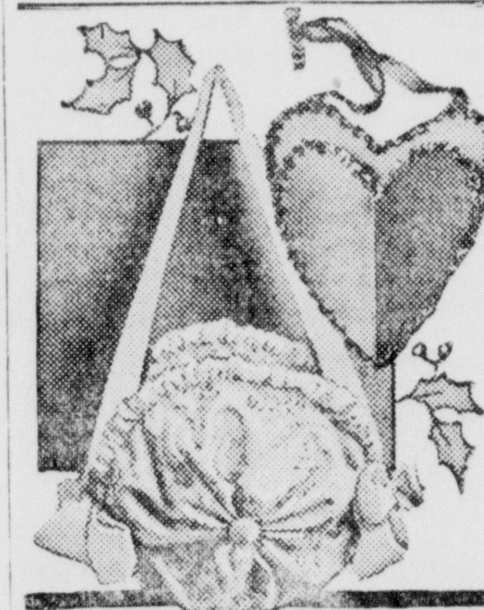

WILL PLAY ORLEANS

Shields High School Second Team Will Play Saturday.

The Shields high school second basketball team is scheduled to go to Orleans Saturday evening where they will play the Orleans high school first team. Several local fans will accompany the local team to Orleans.

Little Wall Pockets

Here are two pretty wall pockets to hang beside or on the dressing table, ready to hold whatever their owners choose to put in them. Disks of cardboard covered with gayly printed ribbon make the frivolous and dainty pocket at the left, and it is suspended by plain satin ribbon that ends in small bows at the sides. At the right two heart-shaped pieces of cardboard are covered smoothly with red satin and fastened together. The edges are finished with narrow puffing of ribbon, and the same ribbon serves to suspend the pocket. This smooth and matter-of-fact affair is evidently intended as a gift for a man. Two hearts with but a single pocket are quite meaningful. But one might use a diamond, a spade or even a club to make a similar pocket, and anyone of them will hold a deck of cards, score cards, pencils and such things, or pins, needles, thimble and thread for a bachelor.

Dainty Ribbon Garters

Ribbons and laces that set off the faces of fair women, do not end their usefulness in this way. Here they appear in Christmas garters of a daintiness and beauty that will bring joy to the recipient. Ribbon, shirred over flat elastic and ornamented with tiny chiffon roses, makes the pair shown with wide flounce of lace falling from one edge of them. The garters at the right are made of wide satin ribbon shirred over flat elastic, with narrow frills of val lace set on them and finished with rosettes made of the same ribbon. Each rosette has a bow of narrower ribbon at the center and three little blossoms of the narrow ribbon, perched at the edge. The rosettes and flowers are shown separately.

"FIDDLE-FIT"

Keep Liver and Bowels Clean and Active with "Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, sour, gassy stomach—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will have you feeling clear, rosy and as fit as a fiddle by morning. They work while you sleep.

The trip was made with one of the new small Overland cars, carrying five persons and a trailer of 1,200 pounds. J. M. Phillips is the Seymour agent for the Overland cars.

MANY HUNTERS DO NOT GET LICENSES

be. We are here today and tonight we may be seventy miles from Seymour. Tomorrow we may be back here again. We never know exactly where we are going from one day to the next."

Ehlers is working with George Ritz, of Indianapolis. They have driven all over the state during the last few weeks and have discovered a large number of hunters who failed to buy their licenses. There is more hunting this season than for many years, according to the deputy wardens and this means more work for the department. Ex-service men are not required to buy licenses but they must be able to show their papers of discharge from the service or certified copies of discharge.

Reports here and in other parts of the state indicate that many former soldiers are taking advantage of the provision of the law which give them the right to hunt without buying a license. Many former service men who have never before invaded the woods and fields in search of game are hunting extensively this fall. Their changed attitude towards the sport is believed to be due to their experience in handling fire arms which they gained during the period of their military service.

Mr. Ehlers called especial attention to the fact that the open season for hunting squirrels closed December 1, but that quail may be killed until December 20. The closed season on rabbits starts January 10 and ends April 1.

Some complaint has been made about hunting on Sunday in this vicinity and the deputy wardens are devoting attention to these reports. The game law makes it an offense for any one to hunt game on Sunday and in some sections of the state the local authorities have assisted the game wardens in enforcing the provision.

RULING RELATIVE TO DELINQUENT COLLECTIONS

County Treasurer Entitled to Five Per Cent. for Collecting Those Due in The City.

The auditor of state has given notice relative to the fees to be retained by county treasurers for the collection of delinquent city taxes. In the fourth and fifth classes where the county treasurer serves as city treasurer, he shall be entitled to five percent. for delinquent city taxes and improvement taxes collected. Heretofore he has been entitled to retain six percent. for making such collections.

The county treasurer collects very little delinquent tax on real estate in this city as settlements are made promptly. There are some delinquents on personal property, however, and these have been looked after for several years by special collectors.

EUROPE AND ASIATIC SOCIETIES FAVOR LEAGUE

Pass Resolution Favoring Law Eliminating The Right to Make War.

Brussels, Dec. 5—The convention of European and Asiatic societies favoring a league of nations, which opened here Monday, today passed a resolution favoring drafting of an international law eliminating the right to make war.

The convention also adopted a resolution favoring an international conciliatory organization to pass upon all different interpretations of the peace treaty.

Delegates decided to work for an arbitration plan to settle industrial disputes and urged employers to recognize the right of their workers to share in administration of industries.

The league of nations, as provided in the treaty, should admit any nation desiring to become a member, the convention voted.

The Most Popular Tractors, Plows and Tillage Implements

YOU know these trade names. Your father knew them before you, and your grandfather was familiar with two of them—McCormick and P. & O. They knew in their time and you know today, through long usage and satisfactory service, that there are no better farm machines and implements made than those bearing these trade names, which are guarantees of high quality and operating efficiency.

McCormick built the first practical reaper; Deering sold the first twine binder and introduced binder twine. Wm. Parlin and the founders of the Chattanooga line were among the earliest plow pioneers. The lines started by these famous manufacturers have been constantly growing since their small beginnings and every new machine and implement that has been added had had built into it the accumulated years of manufacturing experience and farm knowledge acquired by the original founders and their successors.

And now, these time-honored, service-renowned lines have all been merged into one—the International Harvester—the cream of the farm machine world.

We Sell the International Line

What does this mean to you as a farmer? It means, first of all, that you can buy any farm machine or implement you may need, right here in this town, without taking chances on experiments or implements that might be "orphaned" one or two years after you buy them because of the manufacturer going out of business. You can always get repairs for any machine or implement in the International line because the Harvester Company will never go out of business. You are assured of reliable machines because every machine in the Harvester line is tried out and tested under actual farm conditions, before being offered for sale to the farmer. The Experimental Department of the Harvester Company is the most thorough and active institution of its kind.

It means, second, that you can get repairs and repair service on all of these machines through one concern—us. You don't have to go to the bother and inconvenience of trying to get repairs and service from half a dozen or more different companies. You won't be taking chances on expensive delays waiting for repairs during the busy seasons because we are going to carry a big stock of repairs on hand and any repairs that we might not have we can get for you in a hurry by a 'phone call to the International Harvester branch house.

Tack this advertisement up in your machine shed so that whenever you need repairs for any of your International machines you will know where to go. Also, you will know where to go when you are in the market for new machines or implements of real quality and the highest operating efficiency.

PRINT PAPER SITUATION.

Announcement that the St. Louis Republic, one of the oldest newspapers in the west, will suspend publication has resulted in more than the usual interest that is centered in a dispatch of this character. The paper has been purchased by the St. Louis Globe Democrat, its morning competitor. It is announced that the owner of the Republic decided to dispose of the plant because it was a losing proposition, due in a measure to the print paper situation. The purchase of the Republic and the suspension of its publication eliminates another newspaper from the St. Louis field.

What has taken place in St. Louis has been forced in many other cities throughout the country. The print paper situation is almost without parallel, even in these days of unusual trade and manufacturing conditions. Recently newspaper publishers were amazed when they were informed that one of the Indianapolis papers had contracted for paper at slightly more than eight cents a pound. Such a price, they thought, would not continue long. But those who waited to place their orders are now facing a quotation of more than thirteen cents with no prospect that the price will fall.

The result is that many small papers and those which are existing on a precarious financial basis are fighting against odds to remain in business. Scores of newspaper plants have been compelled to give up the fight. In Ohio alone newspaper suspensions or consolidations have taken place recently in Zanesville, Lorain, Cambridge, Wooster and Piqua. The list in Indiana is equally as long. The condition is other states is the same. In many cities of even 30,000 to 50,000 population the newspapers have consolidated for no other reason than to reduce the amount of paper used.

Those who are not familiar with the newspaper game cannot comprehend the conditions the publishers face. Many newspapers have made an advance in their advertising rates but this increase does not take care of the increase in the cost of white paper alone, not to mention the higher cost of labor, materials and other elements which enter into the publishing business. In hundreds of cities the subscription rates of the papers have been advanced from twenty-five to seventy-five percent, as a means to partially offset the increase. The average newspaper publisher is striving to overcome conditions the best he can hoping almost against hope that the situation will soon take a more favorable turn.

EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY

A great deal has been said and written in recent years about the meaning of Democracy. Various opinions have been expressed, and some writers, we fear, have confused the term individual equality which is tantamount to Democracy, with personal freedom.

Mr. John Fletcher, vice president of the Ft. Dearborn National Bank, Chicago, discusses the subject in a forceful way in the Manufacturers' News.

We quote a part of his interview: "There are three kinds of government in force in the world today—autocratic, democratic and bolshevistic. The democratic form is that favored by the powers now dominant; and owing to action of the United States in the war, it is the form that seems destined sooner or later to rule all peoples. America turned the tide in favor of democracy and stood ready to sacrifice the last man and the last dollar in this cause."

"Under the most democratic of governments, the United States has flourished as no other nation, and has grown from a small beginning 100 years ago into the most powerful nation the world has ever seen. And what is more important, it has become the happiest and most prosperous. There is no argument against democracy."

"Democracy, however, should not be mistaken for equality. If every living person were on an equal basis to start with they would not remain so three months. Some would outdistance the others in education, some in finance, some in social prestige. Democracy has been appropriately described in this regard as 'equality of opportunity.' The important thing is that every person shall have an equal opportunity to make good regardless of birth or social standing. In affording this right, America excels the world."

The injustice of one class refusing to work and thus paralyzing industrial activity was never more obvious than at present when the coal miners refuse to resume work. Each day that the miners continue their present attitude results in less sympathy for them and their cause. The miners' organization today does not stand in very good grace with the public, facing shortage of fuel and personal suffering. It can expect little assistance. But how much different would the situation have been if the miners had agreed to produce coal while their case was under consideration. Even if they had accepted the fourteen percent increase under protest they would stand in much different light today. The public would have been in a better frame of mind to listen to their demands. A cold, shivering public will not be very apt to continue to freeze just to listen to miners' officials deliver their set exhortations about individual justice.

If the coal operators are guilty of bringing about the strike the public will demand that they be prosecuted under the same laws that apply to the miners. What the people want is the production of coal resumed and let the hand of justice fall where the guilt is found.

The distribution of coal in favor of the New England states is added evidence that the administration at Washington believes that Washington, Pittsburgh, Baltimore and New York form all of the United States.

Even if the new post lighting system were completed, it would be trying on the public to see the handsome posts disappear in the evening's darkness because of the restrictive coal measures.

The average citizen would probably prefer to save that fifty percent in personal property assessment than have the city advanced to the fourth class.

Why worry? Christmas will soon be here and we can then write letters to Santa Claus to bring us coal.

Maybe Carranza's idea is to force the United States army into Mexico to save him from his constituents.

Maybe the miners believe in hiding the light under the bushel.

STATE MAY ATTEMPT TO RUN COAL MINES IN INDIANA

Governor Goodrich Said To Be Prepared to Act if Strike is Not Settled Soon.

Indianapolis, December 5.—Opinion at the state house is that Governor Goodrich will take steps to seize the mines, either by resorting to receiverships or by the declaration of martial law, as soon as it becomes apparent that the wellbeing of the people of Indiana is seriously threatened by the limited production of coal.

Preliminary steps to prepare for such an emergency were taken yesterday when the Governor requested the state legal department to make investigation for the purpose of determining the most feasible method of procedure.

The possible methods that may be pursued are: (1) Bringing suits for receiverships in Federal Court in instances where mine owners reside outside the state; (2) by filing receivership suits in the state courts; or (3) by declaring martial law.

In event receiverships were obtained the state would then face the provisions of the miners' qualification law which prohibits the employment of unskilled workers in mines. Such restrictions on the kind of labor employed would be void, however, should martial law be ordered.

Ele Stansbury, attorney general, said that he had not made a complete investigation and had not formulated any course of action to submit to the Governor. He pointed out that in event receiverships were obtained and the courts ordered the mines operated, the state would be obliged to protect the miners who desired to return to work. He ventured the opinion that many miners would gladly return to work if they were insured protection.

Mr. Stansbury declared that he believed it to be the duty of the state to exercise its sovereign rights to protect its citizens against cold, lawlessness, pestilence and death, all of which, he said, is threatened by the refusal of a class of trained workers to provide fuel. Although the legal course for the state to take in the matter had not been determined, he asserted that he felt certain the state had the power to act.

The Governor made it plain that he is still adhering to his policy of not interfering with the plans of the Federal government relative to the miners' strike. The preparations for state action are merely precautionary steps, to be applied as a last resort.

In the meanwhile the Governor is continuing his efforts to get the strip mines in operation. Unskilled workers, with the exception of steam shovel operators, can be employed in these mines. In event it is decided to operate the strip mines at the conference of operators to be held with the Governor Saturday morning, it is possible that prisoners from the State Farm and from the Reformatory will be used. The Governor declares that he will not under any circumstances direct prisoners to work shaft mines.

Alfred L. Dannettell, of Camp Zachary Taylor, is here to spend a month's furlough with his mother, Mrs. Anna Dannettell and family, West Bruce street.

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c.

SWISS CURRENCY NETS BIG PROFIT

the war and Switzerland's neutrality backed the enterprise and paid up the capital in advance—namely 600,000 Swiss francs.

The total amount was deposited in a Berne bank to be changed into Austrian crowns for meeting the expenses of the new magazine at Vienna as soon as the latter could be launched.

In the meantime the prospective editors, publishers and business managers began meeting with considerable difficulty in getting the machinery together for the plant, in making sure of an adequate supply of paper, etc.

Foreign exchange on Austrian money has since decreased to such an extent that the 600,000 Swiss francs now on deposit in the Berne bank will bring 20,000 more Austrian crowns than at the moment they were paid in for launching the magazine.

This is believed to be the only case on record where a magazine or newspaper has made money by not publishing—or in any event has made more money than it could possibly have hoped to make by actually doing business. And the longer it keeps from starting up, the more money it makes—in Austrian crowns.

The only way to avoid this fantastic finance now going on in Switzerland is to do business by direct barter and without the interchange of money. As a matter of fact this also is being developed by the force of circumstances to an astounding degree. Here is perhaps the most remarkable recent example:

A former high official in the German navy has just completed the diplomatic negotiations necessary with entente diplomats at Berne to permit him to pass through the Dardanelles with a ship load of goods. The ship is his own purchase which he has bought outright. In addition he now has it laden at Hamburg with a cargo of 30,000,000 marks' worth of German manufactured products.

This ship load of stuff he will take through from Hamburg to Odessa via the Dardanelles. As German money, figuratively speaking, is now worth nothing and as Russian is worth considerably less, this ship load of fine German manufactured products will be exchanged at Odessa for whatever there is on the market there in the way of raw material, food stuffs, minerals or anything that has a high market value in Germany.

Not a mark or a ruble will be exchanged in the whole transaction and the German naval officer will load up his ship with the stuff he gets in exchange at Odessa, bring it back to Germany and exchange it there for more manufactured products without taking the trouble to bother with a money intermediary, and keep up his business until he has a whole fleet of ships doing business on this basis.

Of course, should money ever come to have an established value again he will cash in and buy a continent or something.

In the meantime his present trip with 30,000,000 marks' worth of German merchandise is believed to be the biggest bartering expedition that has taken place since Christopher Columbus exchanged with the Indians the gift of fire water for the American continent.

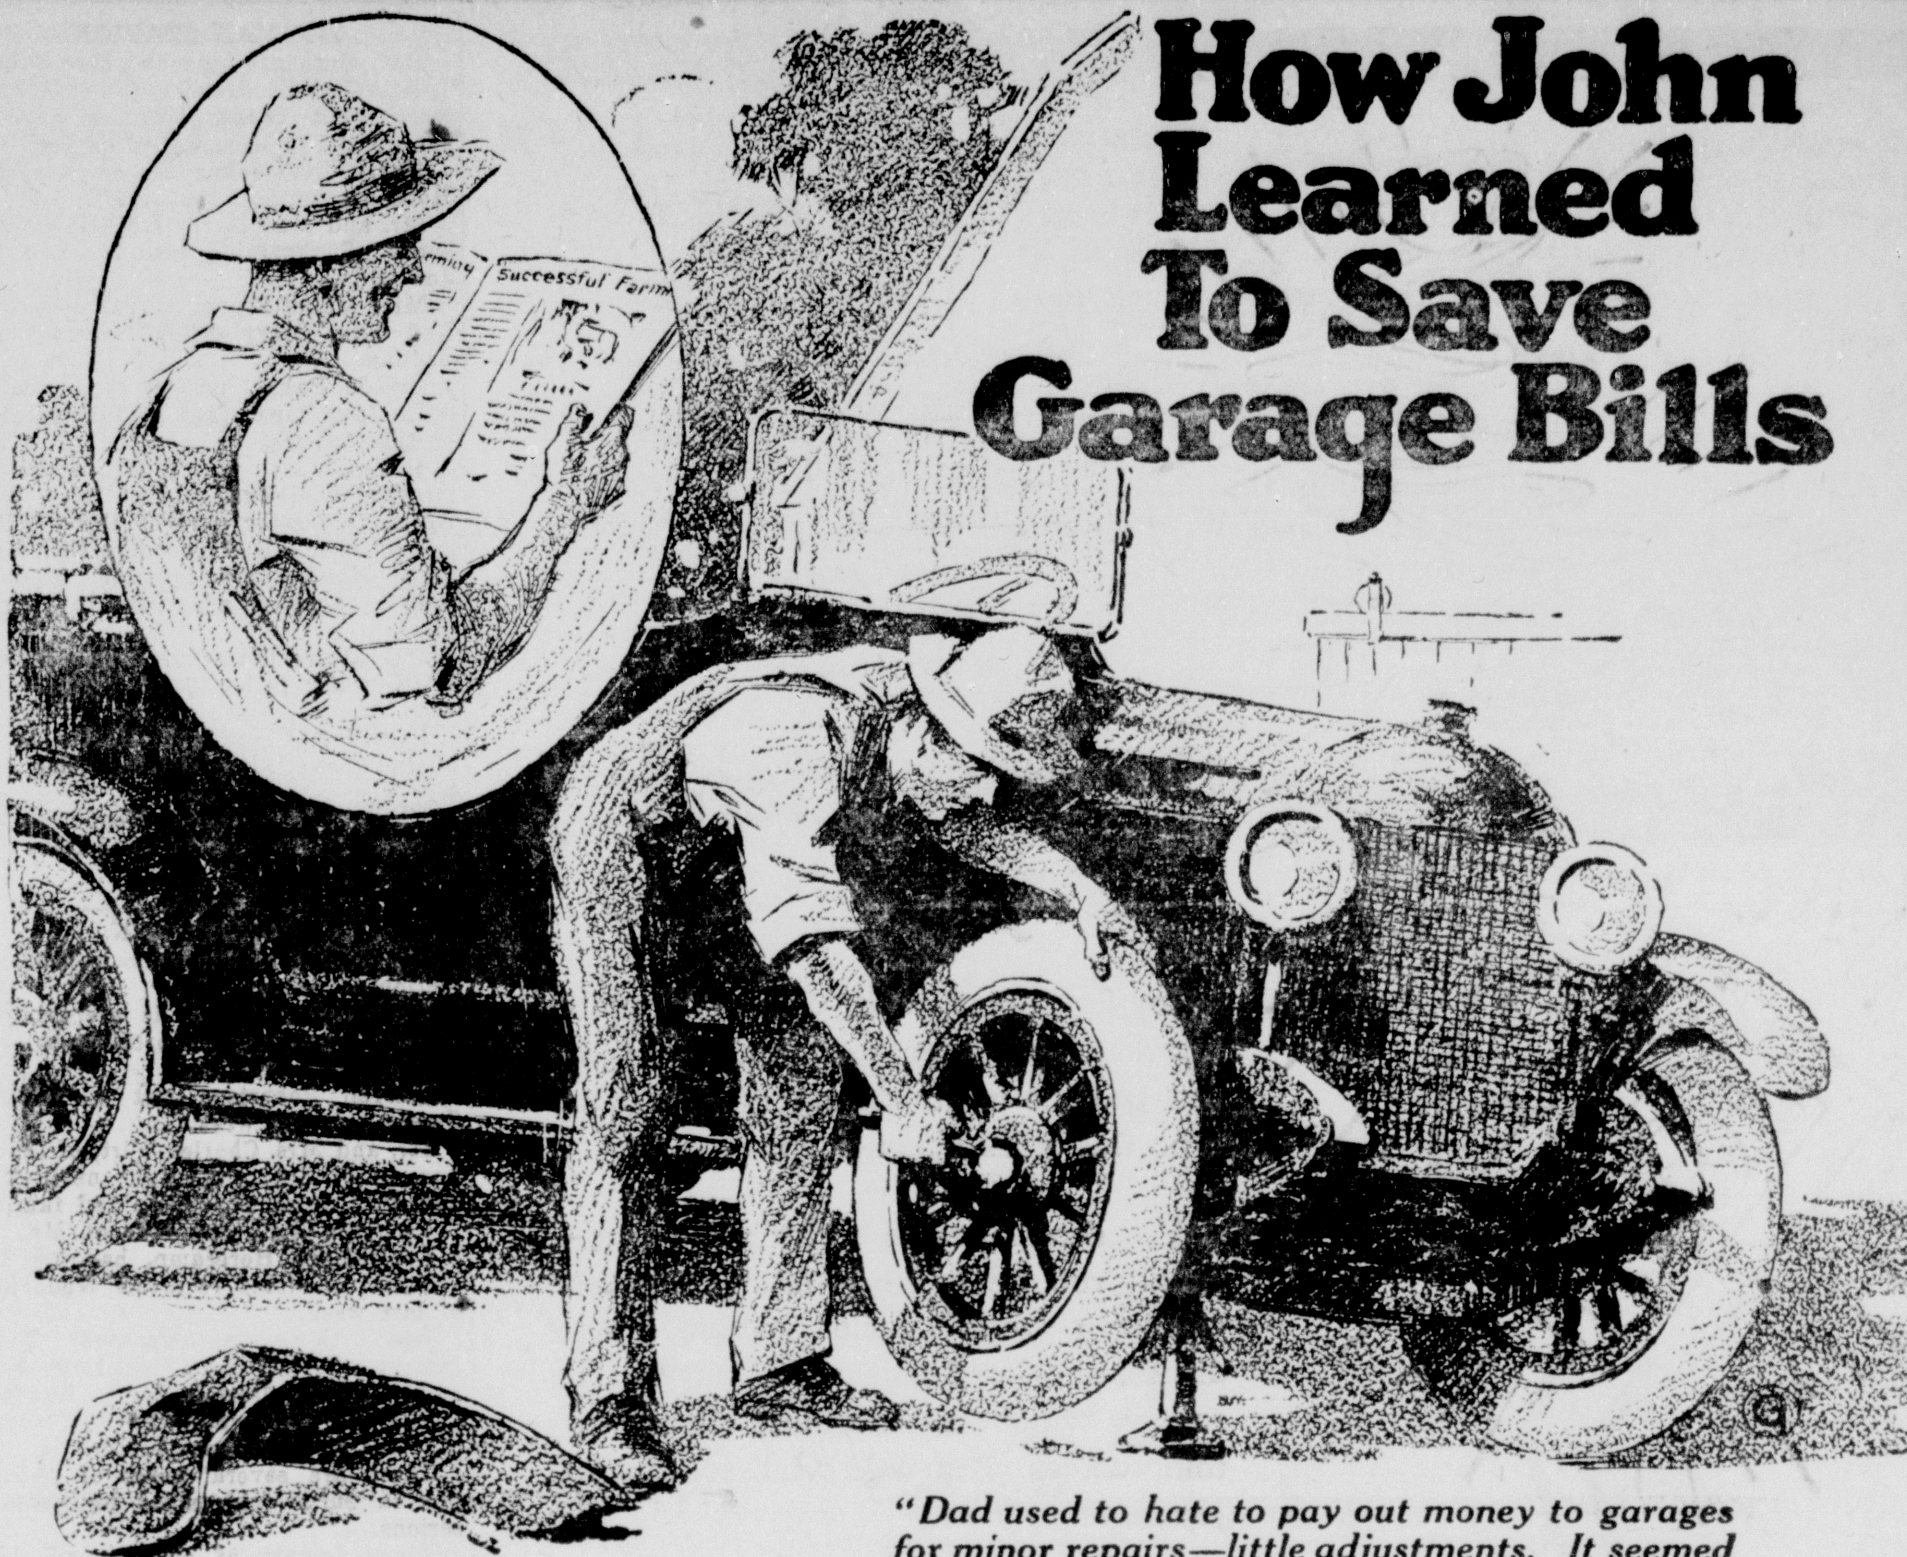

Mrs. Elizabeth Shotts and Mrs. Ida Frazee left Thursday afternoon for Aurora to visit Mrs. Lida Lube, Charles Opp and other relatives.

Mrs. Alonzo Harrell, of Hayden, spent Thursday shopping in this city.

"Dad used to hate to pay out money to garages for minor repairs—little adjustments. It seemed such a lot of money for such a little work."

SO—young John saw his chance. He had read a lot about motors and automobile problems in his favorite paper, Successful Farming. So the next time Dad said "she is knocking again," John just scanned through the back copies of his favorite farm paper until he found an article on engine trouble—and by following the instructions given there by another farmer, he stopped that knocking quicker'n scat.

Every issue of Successful Farming has plenty of helpful information for the auto-owning farmer—help contributed by our more than 800,000 subscribers.

During the year this paper shows you how to cure water leaks in the radiator—how to avoid and correct ignition troubles—how to properly grind valves—how to utilize the waste heat of the engine to make the car more comfortable in cold weather—and hundreds of other hints.

Thoroughly practical articles written by farmers and auto truck and tractor experts on such subjects as how to prevent scored cylinders—how to correctly filter oil—how to care for spark plugs—all the thousand and one little details that must be looked after (either by yourself or by a garage man) if you are to get greatest satisfaction from your machine.

To judge, for yourself, how much help Successful Farming will be to you in your daily farm work and life, have your name placed on our subscription list and read a few copies.

Its desire to help includes and embraces every phase and problem of farm life.

Father likes it because it gives him practical crop "tips." Mother reads it because it shows her schemes and plans and methods that save her steps in the kitchen work and in the house. It is the "clearing house" of money and labor saving ideas for those who are in the farming business.

THE FARMERS SERVICE STATION - DES MOINES, IOWA

CITY MAY NOT GO IN FOURTH CLASS

weeks ago. This ordinance provided for the annexation of about eight hundred acres of land lying adjacent to the city. The incorporation of this additional territory takes in a large number of residences so that to place Seymour in the Fourth class could have easily been secured.

The suit of the Chamber of Commerce questions the right of the state tax board to place a horizontal increase of fifty per cent. on the as-essment of personal property in this city and if its contention is upheld by the court the reduction would be so large that the total valuation of the city would fall far short of the required $7,000,000, even taking the newly annexed territory into consideration. The city officials have been figuring on the amount of the probable reduction and find that it would run into thousands of dollars. The exact figures can only be obtained from the books of the county auditor, which were not accessible to the city officials when they figured up the total.

Many local people are of the opinion that the population of the city next year will exceed 10,000. However, the city officials are of the belief that even with the territory annexed the official census will not exceed 9,000. Local people are desirous of having the census taken accurately and the officials as well as the civic and commercial organizations are ready to cooperate with the enumerators in listing all people who live within the corporation limits of the city.

There is no especial advantage of a Fifth class city seeking advancement into the Fourth class, except in name only. Fourth class city officials receive slightly more salary than do those in the Fifth class, but it is questionable if the salaries could be increased during the present administration even if the change were made. The attorney-general is expected to give a ruling on this question in the near future as a number of cities are interested. Some municipalities which have ad-

Resolutions of Respect.

The sentinel on the hill top watching through the deep shadows of the night, the sailor in the fore peak listening with baited breath to the tumult of the storm, seeing no enemy, hearing no breaker, calls to his mates "all's well."

Withal senses alert, the grim reaper swings his strong arm, and man, strong man, the bulwark of the hour, vanishes as the vapor before the blast.

Dr. Fred Heller, our associate, our friend, our neighbor, conscious only of the strength of mature manhood, while yet in love with life, busy preparing to enter the worries and trials of another day, mindful of neither time nor place, uttering maybe only a quiet prayer, without time to say farewell, sank to his eternal sleep.

The Lord says "boast not thyself of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what the day may bring forth." Through Gods admonishing shock we are all reminded of the frail tenure of this life, nor how soon or in what manner we may have to respond to his call.

Let us therefore, the Jackson County Medical Society in annual session assembled, bow in humble submission to His will, commend his family to the comforter of the widow and the orphan, to extend to them in these few words our sympathy in the hour of their distress, and in his remembrance spread this upon our records and give a copy to the daily press.

HOW A SICK DOCTOR REGAINED HIS HEALTH

Young doctor 27 years old was told by several eminent physicians that he could not live, but discovered a remarkable formula that restored his health.

In 1898 Dr. A. L. Reusing of Akron, Ohio, had just completed his course at medical college. He had paid his way through medical college by working nights as a telegrapher. Overwork and over-study had undermined his health, and he consulted many specialists, but they all pronounced him incurable and said that he could live only a few months.

But Dr. Reusing determined that if he must die, he would find the cause, since none of the physicians could diagnose his disease positively.

Knowing that without oxygen the body dies, he began a thorough investigation of the effect of oxygen on the blood. He studied Prof. Virchow's famous "Cell Theory" which proves that the body is only a collection of cells and that there are twelve cell-salts that nourish and maintain the cells of the body. Just as a flower droops and dies for lack of water, so the cells wither and die for lack of their natural cell-salts.

He knew that the red blood cells carry the iron in the blood and that iron attracts oxygen just as a magnet attracts steel. He learned that by increasing the amount of iron in the blood, the iron attracted the oxygen from the air in the lungs into the blood exactly as the magnet attracts steel. He found that oxygen oxidizes or burns up the impurities, germs, and torn-down cells that are found in the blood.

Through careful research he learned the cell-salts that nature requires to feed the cells and maintain health. This led to the discovery that the health of the body is governed entirely by the health of the blood and that if the blood is rich in oxygen, plasma and iron, and supplied with the natural cell-salts that nourish and maintain the health, vigor and vitality of the cells, the whole body glows with health, strength and energy.

Relentlessly Dr. Reusing made his scientific researches and investigations until his efforts were crowned with success. He discovered a formula which combines the natural cell-salts that feed and nourish the cell of the tissues, nerves, fluids, brain and bones of the body and rapidly increases the supply of oxygen, iron and plasma of the red blood cells, which revitalize and rebuild the entire body.

This formula—discovered in a desperate effort to preserve his own life—proved so successful that he gradually restored his health and soon became strong and vigorous. Dr. Reusing is now 47 years old and his ruddy cheeks, bright eyes and vigorous health are irrefutable evidences of the strength-renewing, blood-purifying, health-building properties of his formula.

For nearly 20 years Dr. Reusing has prescribed this formula for thousands of patients in his private practice with wonderful success. The medical profession has recognized its therapeutic value for the treatment of diseases.

So many people have been benefited and restored to health by Dr. Reusing's formula and he is so thoroughly convinced of its therapeutic action by thousands of case records in his own practice, that he has decided to supply this formula, which he has named "REOLO," to the public through registered druggists, who are licensed distributors of the Dr. A. L. Reusing Laboratories, Akron, Ohio.

Each package of "REOLO" contains 100 tasteless tablets, enough for two weeks treatment. It is not expensive. It only costs $1.00 a package and is positively guaranteed to give beneficial results or your money will be returned.

REOLO is sold in ——— by ———, who are the licensed distributors.

Lesson 10 December 7 Fourth Quarter SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

PETER AND JOHN ASLEEP IN GETHSEMANE

Mark 14:32-42.

GOLDEN TEXT—Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.—Mark 14:38.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Mat 26:36-66; Luke 22:39-64; John 18:1-11.

PRIMARY TOPIC—An Angel Strengthening Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Peter and John Fall to Help Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—Asleep on Duty.

SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Depends upon His Disciples.

1. Christ's Suffering (vv. 32-34).

The place (v. 32). The garden of Gethsemane—an enclosure containing olive and fig trees, beyond Kidron, about three-fourths of a mile from Jerusalem. The name means olive-press. The name is significant of the occasion. Eldersheim says it is an emblem of trial, distress and agony. Perhaps the garden was owned by one of Jesus' friends.

2. His companions (v. 35). He took with him the 11 disciples, that they might share, so far as possible, this sorrow with him. Being a real human being he craved sympathy. He bade them watch with him. While he knew that he must "tread the wine-press alone," he had a keen appreciation of sympathy so far as those who loved him could give it. The behavior of the disciples shows the utter limitation of human sympathy.

3. His great sorrow (v. 34). This is the same as the "cup" in verse 36. It was not primarily the prospect of physical suffering that was crushing him; it was the suffering as a sin-bearer—the sensations of his pure soul coming into contact with the awful sin and guilt of the world. Only pure and refined natures can understand this. In addition to this, there was the judgment stroke from the holy God as it fell upon his Son instead of the sinner. God caused the iniquities of the world to strike upon Jesus (II Cor. 5:21; Isa. 53:6).

II. Christ Praying (vv. 35-42).

Though he prized human sympathy in the hour of supreme need, his only recourse was prayer. The sympathy of our friends is helpful, but in the great crises of life we can find help only when we go to God in prayer. "Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray" (James 5:13).

1. The first prayer (vv. 35-38). (1) His posture (v. 35). He fell on his face, prostrate on the ground. In the hour of our great need we naturally prostrate ourselves before God. This is a becoming posture. (2) His petition (v. 36). "Take away this cup from me." By the cup is meant his death on the cross. He did not desire to escape the cross. No doubt it was most grievous to him to face its shame, but he pressed on, knowing that for this cause he had come into the world (John 12:27, 28; cf. Heb. 2:14). He prayed that the "hour might pass from him," that is, that his life might be prolonged to die on the cross at the appointed time to make atonement for the sins of the world. The burden was so great that it seemed his life would be crushed out. His prayer was heard (Heb. 5:7). When God hears our prayers he grants the petition desired (I John 5:14-15). Angels ministered to him, giving the necessary grace to endure to the end (Luke 22:43). (3) His resignation (v. 36). His will was in subjection to the Father. He knew that his death on the cross was the will of God the Father; for he was the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. (4) The disciples rebuked (v. 37). He singled out Peter, since he had been the most conspicuous in proclaiming his loyalty (John 13:38). Though he would go with him to death, he could not watch one hour. (5) Exhortation to the disciples (v. 38). "Watch and pray, lest ye enter into temptation." The only way to be able to stand in the time of trial is to be watching and praying. Jesus knew that although the disciples meant well, they would fall in the trial unless aided from above. The flesh is too weak to stand the strain.

2. The second prayer (vv. 39, 40). He withdrew the second time from his disciples and uttered the same words in prayer. This was not vain repetition. It is proper to repeat our requests. He found the disciples asleep again. Their shame and confusion was more marked than at first.

3. The third prayer (vv. 41, 42). He uttered the same words in his third prayer (Matt. 26:44). He now tells the disciples to sleep on and take their rest, as the hour had come for his betrayal. There is such a thing as being asleep when wanted and awaking when it is too late. If the disciples had been praying they would not have fallen asleep.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER DOING WELL

"Mother and myself, taking the advice of some kind friends, are taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy for bad stomach and liver trouble and bloating. The medicine is right, and well named 'Wonderful', for such it is. It has certainly done wonders for us both." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At Druggists Everywhere.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcline in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

CITY MAY NOT GO

Material Reduction in Personal Property Assessment Would Affect Proposed Advancement.

SUIT IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

Total Valuation of $7,500,000 is Required for City to Qualify for Next Highest Group.

If the Chamber of Commerce should win the decision in its suit to prevent the collection of the fifty per cent. horizontal increase in the assessment of personal property in this city, the chance of Seymour advancing to the group of Fourth class cities under the apportionment for 1920 would disappear. There are two ways in which a Fifth class city may qualify for advancement in the next highest group provided by the Indiana law. The first is that such Fifth class city must have a population of 10,000 and the second is for such city to have a total appraised property valuation of $7,500,000.

The city officials had hoped that Seymour might advance into the Fourth class under the second provision. When the assessments of property under the new tax law were compiled it was found that Seymour's total appraised valuation was approximately $7,449,000. This meant that the city lacked about $51,000 of having sufficient valuation to qualify for advancement into the Fourth class.

In the meantime, however, the city council had undertaken a corporation extension movement which was accomplished by ordinance several

GRASSY FORK TOWNSHIP
FARMER SERIOUSLY INJURED

John F. Wehmiller Has Shoulder Bone Fractured and Is Bruised About Body.

John F. Wehmiller, a well-known Grassy Fork township farmer who resides on Rural Route No. 5 was seriously injured Thursday when a team of horses ran away causing a farm wagon to pass over his body. As a result of the accident Mr. Wehmiller had his right shoulder bone fractured and he was otherwise bruised about the body.

The accident happened when Mr. Wehmiller was unhitching a team of horses from a wagon that became frightened and before he could get them loose started to run pulling the wagon with them. Members of Mr. Wehmiller's family witnessed the accident and came to his rescue. A physician was called to attend his injuries and he is reported to be resting as well as could be expected.

MANY HUNTERS DO

Quail May be Killed Until December 20—Closed Rabbit Season to Start January 10.

Violation of that section of the Indiana game law which requires hunters to have a license has resulted in an average of one arrest a day in Jackson and adjoining counties, according to Fred Ehlers, deputy game warden, who was in the city today on official business. The Indiana fish and game department is giving special attention to the enforcement of this section of the law this year and numerous hunters in various parts of the state who have neglected to secure licenses have been required to pay fines.

"We are working in a different manner than we did several years ago," declared Ehlers. "Formerly we went into a district and remained in that locality practically throughout the hunting season. Now we are provided with automobiles and we ride through the country, stopping for night wherever we may

JENNINGS COUNTY TO GET NEW STATE FARM

Commission Appointed to Select Site For Feeble Minded Have Decided on Location.

According to Indianapolis newspapers the commission appointed by Governor James P. Goodrich to select a site for the feeble minded institution have decided on a location in Jennings county. It will be remembered that the commission visited this city in a tour of the state to find a location for the farm and were shown a site in the Farmington neighborhood. The commission was apparently well pleased with the location shown them in this county but it is evident that they have found something that suits them better if the statement in the Indianapolis papers is correct. It is estimated that the township where the institution is to be located will lose about $150,000 worth of taxable property. Land near Mitchell which was offered to the commission was given favorable consideration by the members of the board.

MORNING SHOPPING IS BECOMING MORE NOTICEABLE

Merchants Are Receiving Co-operation of Public in Their Efforts to Save Fuel.

Holiday shopping is getting well underway in Seymour and local merchants are gratified to note that an unusually large amount of buying has been done in the morning the past few days. The spirit shows that the public is cooperating with the merchants that close one hour earlier each evening in order to save fuel, and shoppers who can do so are visiting the stores in the forenoon.

It is greatly to the interest of the shoppers as well as the merchants that the holiday shopping be done early and especially that much of it be done in the forenoons. In this way the shoppers have an opportunity to get the pick of the stocks, have more time to make selections and the merchants and clerks have more time to devote to them, thus giving more efficient and satisfactory results.

Many of the stores in the city have taken on a Christmas appearance. All stores are preparing for a big business tomorrow and if the weather will permit the farmers and their families to come to the city it is predicted that Saturday will be one of the big days of the season for the merchants.

Enforced Idleness is Result of Industrial Tieup Growing Out of Coal Shortage.

WAGE LOSS IS ENORMOUS

Central Coal Committee in Continuous Session Solving Problems of Priority.

By United Press
Washington, December 5—More than one million workers are now completely idle or employed but part time as a result of the coal shortage, it was estimated unofficially here today.

Exact figures are impossible to obtain since formal reports are not received from all sections of the country. But railroad administration reports show that in some sections whole communities are having enforced vacations.

The wage loss is estimated at more than $2,000,000 daily. Loss to employers and business men is beyond all estimate.

The central coal committee of the railroad administration here site continuously solving problems of priority and distribution.

Reports show that coal production is nearly fifty percent. of normal through efforts of non union workers. Reserve facts, however, are practically exhausted and the coal is one a mine-two-consumer basis.

Indianapolis, December 5—The federal grand jury probe activities of the coal miners and mine operators will extend back to the time United States declared war against Germany, it was learned officially today. The first impressions were that the investigation would only cover the time the strike has been in effect.

Charge of contempt of court was filed against thirteen officials of two local unions at Clinton, Ind., today. These added to the eighty-four indicted Wednesday brings the total to ninety-seven who have been charged with violating the government's anti-strike injunction.

Their bond was fixed at $5,000 each. The bonds of the other eighty-four which include the district and international leaders have been fixed at $10,000 each.

The Clinton men will be notified to appear before Federal Judge Anderson at ten o'clock Tuesday along with the eighty-four. Five general charges against them are:

HOLDS SESSION TODAY

Discuss Mexican Situation and Coal Strike For Two and a Half Hours.

By United Press

Washington, December 5—President Wilson's cabinet adjourned today after a two and one-half hour discussion of the Mexican situation, the coal strike and the railroads.

Secretary Lansing on leaving the meeting refused to say what Mexican discussion had taken place. Fuel administrator Garfield attended but had nothing to say on the coal strike.

Tariff Change Asked.

The Cincinnati district freight traffic committee of the federal railroad administration has given notice that an application has been filed for a change in tariffs on lumber and other forest products in earload lots affecting local shippers.

The application asks that North Vernon be added as a point of origin taking same group basis of rates as Jeffersonville to points of destination enumerated in tariff, with the exception of stations in Indiana located south of the line of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, North Vernon to Cincinnati, inclusive. A hearing has been set for December 9.

TO DISCUSS THE MEXICAN PROBLEM

Senators Hitchcock and Fall to Confer With President Wilson This Afternoon.

CONGRESS ASSURES SUPPORT

Foreign Relations Committee Will Meet Again Monday to Decide on Resolution.

By United Press

Washington, December 5—Senators Hitchcock and Fall will confer with President Wilson at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in regard to the Mexican situation, it was announced at the White House today. Hitchcock and Fall compose the sub-committee of the foreign relations committee named to consult with the president and get his views on Fall's resolution which directs that diplomatic relations with Mexico be severed.

President Wilson must decide whether the United States shall break relations with Mexico or he must decline to accept responsibility for making that decision.

The foreign relations committee must meet again Monday to receive the sub-committee's report and determine what to do with Fall's resolution. Republican members are unanimous today in favor of its passage as written. This would mean requesting President Wilson to withdraw recognition from the Carranza government and sever diplomatic relations.

Democratic members favor a resolution assuring President Wilson of congress's support should he sever relations.

OHIO GOVERNOR IS TRYING TO END STRIKE

State Officials, Coal Miners and Operators In Conference at Columbus.

By United Press

Columbus, O., Dec. 5—Gov. Cox called a "round table" of his own for 11 o'clock today, in the hope of ending the coal strike in Ohio.

Operators and miners' officials agreed to attend, according to word from the governor's office.

The session is to be "informal," Secretary G. W. Savage of the miners' of the Ohio district said. Neither side is to come with "demands" or a basis for settlement, "but only in the spirit of bringing about an adjustment and resumption of coal production," according to the governor's office.

Ohio industries face a shutdown within ten days unless the fuel situation sees a change for the better, according to reports from all parts of the state here. Many plants in the industrial centers like Cleveland and Canton were reported already idle.

JENKINS RELEASED
BY THE MEXICANS

State Department Notified That the American Counselor Agent is Out of Penitentiary.

WAS KIDNAPPED BY BANDITS

Senators Fall and Hitchcock Were at White House When Word of Release Came.

By United Press

Washington, Dec. 5—William Jenkins, American Counsellor agent, has been released from the penitentiary at Puebla, Mexico, the state department announced today.

Notification of his release was sent to the department today by the American Embassy at Mexico City.

The release of Jenkins officials believe foreshadows a reply from Carranza agreeing to the last American note which reiterated the demand for the counselor agent's release and it is expected to ease the strained relations between the two countries.

Word of the release came from the state department while Senators Fall and Hitchcock were at the White House to lay the Mexican problem before President Wilson.

Jenkins was kidnapped by Mexican bandits headed by outlaw Cordova from his estate near Puebla on October 19. Five bandits hidden in his factory compelled him to open the safe which they took 50,000 pesos and then forced the counsellor agent to accompany them into the hills where they remained until October 26. On that date Jenkins was released on payment of $150,000 ransom.

Shortly after his return home he was arrested by Mexican authorities on a charge of collusion with his abductors. It was alleged he was seen in company with the leaders before and during the period of abduction.

Testimony from Mexican peons was adduced to that effect. Jenkins strenuously denied the charges and refused to give bail of $500 for his release when the opportunity was afforded him, maintaining that doing so would drag out the proceedings indefinitely.

MEXICAN BANDITS RAID RANCH NEAR ZAPATA, TEXAS

Storekeeper Bound and Gagged and His Place of Business Looted By Bandits.

By United Press

Laredo, Texas, December 5—Mexican bandits raided the Clarendo Ranch, eleven miles down the Rio Grande from Zapata, Texas, according to a telephone message received in Laredo today.

The bandits crossed the Rio Grande into Texas late last night, rode to the general store on the ranch, bound and gagged the store keeper tied him to a post and then looted the store, the message said.

They took all provisions in the place, packed them on several horses stolen from the ranch and then swam the river back to Mexico.

The facts were at once communicated to Captain Hanson, special investigator for the Senate committee investigating the Mexican situation, who wired the details to Senator Fall.

be given the opportunity of making out their returns immediately upon the closing of their books for the year 1919 when accurate knowledge of their accounts is fresh in their minds.

As a convenience to themselves and as a means of expediting the work of the government, taxpayers are urged by the bureau to avail themselves of this opportunity. The period for filing is from January 1 to March 15, 1920.

If the tax is paid in quarterly installments, one-fourth of the amount must accompany the filing of the return.

Form 1040 A will be used for filing individual income tax returns of $5,000 and less, and Form 1040 for filing returns of income in excess of that amount.

The normal rate of tax for 1919, provided for in the revenue act of 1918, is 4 per cent on the first $4,000 above the exemptions, and 8 per cent on the remaining net income. The tax for 1918 was 6 and 12 per cent respectively. The surtax rates, which range from 1 per cent on the amount of net income between $5,000 and $6,000 to 65 per cent of the amount by which the net income exceeds $1,000,000, are the same as for the year 1918. The exemptions of $1,000 for single persons and $2,000 for married persons and heads of families remain unchanged.

These rates apply to every citizen and resident of the United States. Alien non-residents receiving income from sources within the United States are subject to the full tax of 8 per cent on such income in excess of the exemptions.

Do You Accept Opinions Ready Made?

Or Are You One of Those Who Do Their Own Investigating?

IF you belong to the latter group you will read every word of this announcement—you will visit the plant of the Seymour Furniture Company and have a talk with our Mr. A. W. Dassler or phone him to call and see you with first-hand information—which will knock the foundations from any ready-made opinions as to the strength or personnel of THE M. L. NELSON FURNITURE COMPANY.

In the business of life, there is one satisfaction which to most of us is above all others—the satisfaction of doing whatever we do in the best way we know how, without being hindered by the obstacles encountered, for they only make the game more worth while winning.

"Furniture of Quality and Character" combined with "Service" has been our slogan for twenty-five years—we are the oldest furniture jobbing house doing business in Chicago today, having been organized by Mr. M. L. Nelson over twenty-five years ago. He lived long enough to realize his ambition of being the WORLD'S LARGEST WHOLESALE FURNITURE DISTRIBUTORS with shipments of three and a half million dollars. At his death, twelve years ago, Mr. G. E. Dewey became President of the re-organized concern and is still holding that position.

The safety of any institution is governed by the honesty, integrity and ability of

DON'T KNOCK BE A BOOSTER

Our Chicago office and salesrooms are located at 1410 to 1420 S. Wabash Ave., in a seven-story building with a frontage of 120 feet, containing 16,000 square feet on each floor (over 100,000 feet in all), a building erected for us six years ago and which we occupy on a 25-year lease.

The purchase of the Seymour Furniture Company plant has been made by us for the sole purpose of putting us in a better position to give "Service" to our dealers and plans are already being drawn up by our architect for an enlargement of the present plant.

Assisting Mr. Dewey in his duties is our Vice President, Mr. A. W. Dassler, who has for years been Secretary and Manager of The Kiel Furniture Company of Milwaukee, and Kiel, Wisconsin. the man at the head of the organization. Mr. E. E. Gore, resident partner of Barrow, Wade, Guthrie & Company, Certified Public Accountants with offices in Chicago, Boston, New York, San Francisco and London, England, states as follows:

"The firm of which I am a member has been the auditor of the M. L. Nelson Furniture Company for about twelve years.

Upon none of the occasions of our visits for the purpose of auditing the accounts of this company have we ever found any disposition on the part of either Mr. Dewey or Mr. Mackenzie to take any action that would tend to make the affairs of the company appear more favorably than the facts justified, nor have we ever found any indication of a disposition on their part to conduct their business in anything but a lawful and proper manner.

The long acquaintance which I have enjoyed with these gentlemen, together with the exceptional opportunities I have had for forming a judgment of their character and business practices leads me to state that they have my confidence entirely, and that I would trust them implicitly in business matters.

I believe these gentlemen to be exceptionally energetic and capable and to have an unusual knowledge of the furniture trade. I believe that any enterprise which has their support would be an unquestionable success."

Mr. Wm. H. Lincoln of Columbus, Ind. (one of your good neighbors), has this to say:

"The writer has personally known Mr. G. E. Dewey for possibly twenty years and in all that period has at various times had occasion to do business with him. I have found Mr. Dewey a very conscientious, capable and upright gentleman and I believe he is entitled to the utmost confidence from every angle."

Your Help to Us Will be Appreciated

The financial strength of the consolidated organization will be over a quarter of a million dollars and will be further increased as we complete our plans to own and operate two or three more furniture factories.

And through the resources of this most extensive and comprehensive Wholesale Furniture Distributing and Manufacturing Organization, we hope to increase the population of Seymour as fast as the housing situation will permit.

This factory will be a SEYMOUR Plant, employing SEYMOUR People and conduct its business to the advantage of SEYMOUR interests.

Games for Children at Christmas Time

By A. NEELY HALL

(Copyright, by A. Neely Hall.)

It may be for a Christmas party, or for the family gathering, that you will need ideas; for either, the following games will furnish fun for young and old alike.

The Game of Tip.

This old English game requires the use of enough assorted Christmas candies, nuts, raisins, and other dainties, to make a small pile upon a table; also a pair of sugar tongs. One of the party is chosen, who must retire to another room while the remaining players decide upon one of the dainties in the pile to be known as "Tip." The chosen person is then recalled, and with the tongs removes pieces from the pile, trying to avoid the piece named Tip, of which, however, he does not know the location. All pieces removed belong to him, unless he removes Tip, when all must be returned to the pile, and the turn passes to the next player, who retires to the other room while another Tip is named. A player may pass his turn when, after drawing several pieces, he wants to avoid the possibility of losing them through drawing Tip. The game continues until the pile disappears.

A Fill-in Game.

For a laughter producer this game has no peer. A poem is selected and copied upon paper, with each noun omitted and a line drawn in its place. Then the nouns are copied upon small cards, one upon each. The cards are dealt, an equal number to each player, and a player is chosen as reader. The reader reads the poem, pausing at each space, and the players fill in, in turn, a noun from the cards in their pile. The nouns will seldom come in their original places, and the result will be a ridiculous mix-up.

Sliced Toy Puzzles.

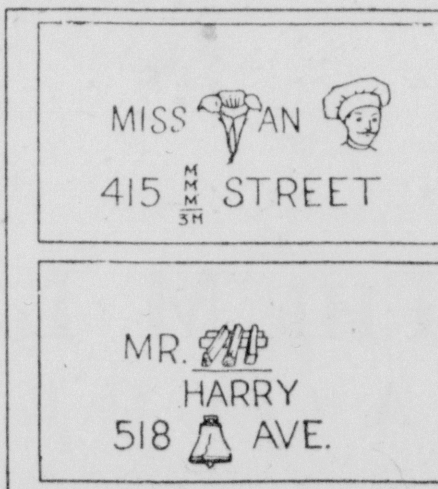

From advertisements cut pictures of toys, and paste these upon pieces of cardboard; then with a sharp knife slice the cardboard into irregular pieces as indicated in Fig. 1. Place the parts of each picture in an envelope by itself. When ready to play the game, give each player an envelope, and direct him to put together the parts so as to make the picture of the toy. At the expiration of a given length of time, direct an exchange of the toys.

Acrostic Place Cards.

An original idea for the place cards for the Christmas party is to prepare them in the form of letters from Santa Claus, with the names and addresses of the guests worked out in acrostics, as is suggested on the two specimen envelopes in the illustration; and have the guests find their places by interpreting the inscriptions upon the envelopes. The first envelope illustrated reads, "Miss Lillian Cook, 415 Adams Street," the second one, "Mr. Harry Underwood, 518 Bell Avenue." Some of the addresses may be harder to make into acrostics; others will be easier. Making them will be fun; deciphering them will afford several minutes of keen enjoyment.

Good Economics Is Good Religion

—G. W. Wickersham

GEORGE W. WICKERSHAM
Former Attorney-General of the United States.

George W. Wickersham, former Attorney General of the United States, is actively enlisted in the Nation-Wide Campaign of the Episcopal Church which is being waged for a more practical, efficient religion. Discussing the awakening of the people, as one of the outcomes of the world war, and of their dawning consciousness of power and influence in shaping the world's affairs, Mr. Wickersham says:

"It is distinctly a church function to lead in this. The politicians can't do it. It isn't a situation in which partisan passion should play any part. It is a human problem, and the part which the church must play is that of getting down to a human basis in its relations with men and women and approaching them not only from their spiritual, but from their material side as well.

"We have had too much religion that goes over the heads of the people. We haven't been practical and we haven't been efficient. The religion of the new era must recognize and advocate that men and women are rational human beings, entitled to fair and adequate compensation for their toil, and the blessings of light, air, sunshine, flowers, ample hours in which to enjoy all these and stimulating amusements. That is at once good economics and good religion. It is a religion that makes for efficiency, and a religion that is human, and practical.

This increasing of the human, practical and efficient side of religion is one of the big problems to be tackled by the Episcopal Church in its Nation-Wide Campaign to increase at home and abroad its religious, educational, hospital and social service work. After an intensive educational campaign will come an every member canvass of communicants of the Episcopal Church on December 7 for funds to the amount of more than $12,000,000 and for 1,500 additional church workers.

FRANCE TRAVELS ROUGH ROAD

Will Be Long Before the Nation Has Recovered From the Effects of the Great War.

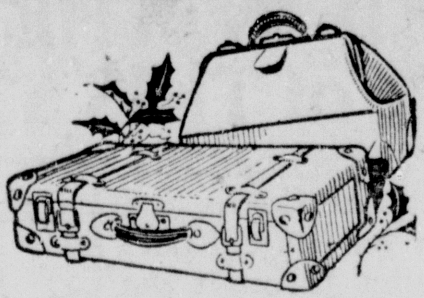

The casual observer sees no want in France. There is no shortage in the hotels, the restaurants or the shops. But the masses have little. France made a pretense of fixing prices, but did nothing to make price fixing effective. In England a starvation schedule existed in the best hotels and restaurants during the war. No one was allowed to have much more than his share, regardless of the size of his pocketbook. France even abandoned her meatless days because there was plenty of meat. There was plenty because no one could afford to buy it.

During the war people struggled ahead, upheld by patriotism and hope. Now there seems no hope and no stimulus. The cost of living has continued to mount. Butter was $2 a pound in Paris last winter and eggs the same price per dozen. Meat ranged around a dollar a pound, while vegetables were on a similar level. And there has been no increase in income in most cases in any way proportionate to the increase in expenses. The hotel, restaurant and shopkeepers, who now seem to be reaping a golden harvest, lost heavily for four years, and it will be a long time before they are even. Much of France's invested wealth was in Russia; most of her industries lay in the now devastated regions of the North. To the great majority there seems no chance of beating back—Walter Kellogg Towers in World Outlook.

Significance in Change.

There is an appropriateness about this disappearance of the Swan hotel in Frankfort, where was signed, in 1871, the peace closing the war between France and Germany. The hotel is being pulled down to give place to a large cinema palace, the furniture of the room in which the treaty was signed being sent to the Frankfort museum. Nothing more thoroughly obliterative of the past could be imagined than this advent of a cinema where history was once made. Nothing but a few chairs and a table standing in a museum will remain to tell the story of what was once such very real actuality.

DESERTED THE NARROW PATH

Sad Story of man's Rebellion After Years of a Life Attuned to Higher Things.

Once there was a low-spirited, desolate gent who had never played a game of chance, never flirted, never witnessed a theatrical performance after "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and "Ten Nights in a Barroom" ceased to infuse the town hall, nor used tobacco in any form, and for 27 long years went to oyster suppers, select readings, helpful lectures, the lyceum course and the Chautauqua. He no one suspected that he had any more notion of saving from the straight and narrow way than a toad has of growing feathers. But when it was least expected he kicked over the traces and ran plumb wild. Why, dear suzz, he just up and brazenly declared on a afternoon that he wasn't going that night to listen to our pastor tell about his travels in the holy land illumined by a magic lantern with slides with cracks across 'em. He said he'd growp tired of dissipation, and didn't enjoy a wild and reckless life like he used to.—Kansas City Star.

Holiday Fun With Shadows for Youngsters

By A. NEELY HALL

(Copyright, by A. Neely Hall)

Every boy likes to give home entertainments, and probably the best time of the year is right now during the holidays when grandmother and grandfather have come to visit, and an appreciative audience is at hand. There are so many things for a boy to do during this vacation, however, that there is little time to prepare an entertainment, so I shall show you how to give a shadow exhibition, as this can be arranged in a short time. It requires only a few minutes to get the knack of shadow making, and after you have tried out the forms in the accompanying illustrations you will find it easy to devise others.

The shadows must be cast upon a sheet, and the audience must be seated on one side of this, and the operator stand on the other side. It is best to hang the sheet in a doorway so the light by which the shadows are made can be confined to the screen, because the room in which the audience are seated must be dark. By hanging a dark cloth over the upper and lower portions of the doorway the area of the picture screen can be reduced to just the size necessary, and the covered lower portion will conceal the shadow of the boy performer's body (Fig. 1). The light for projecting shadows must be placed about five feet in back of the screen.

Figs. 1 and 2 show a rabbit shadow, and how the hands are held to produce it. Interlock your little fingers, then slide the back of your left hand over on to the back of your right hand. Form the nose and head by doubling back the first finger of the left hand, and the ears by extending the second and third fingers, and extend the thumb and first three fingers of the right hand for the feet. By wiggling the first finger the rabbit can be made to nibble.

The alligator shadow (Fig. 3) is a one-hand shadow made with the aid of two pieces of cardboard notched along their edges to form teeth (Fig. 4). Fig. 3 shows how the teeth are held between the extended fingers, and how the alligator's eye is formed by light passing through an opening between the first and second fingers. With your free hand give the alligator things to eat. His eating will greatly amuse your audience. With modifications, a snake's head can be formed with your arm extended for its body.

Fig. 5 shows a wolf's head, and Fig. 6 a donkey's. Both are formed by placing the palms of the hands together, with thumbs up for ears, the first fingers drawn in for the forehead, and the little fingers dropped for the lower jaw. These shadows are a good example of how different figures are produced by extending or bending the fingers.

The duck's head (Fig. 7) is a simple one-hand shadow. By dropping and raising the little finger the duck appears to open and close its bill. It can be made to snap at flies very naturally. Santa Claus' profile (Fig. 8) requires a cardboard hat (Fig. 9). The first finger forms the nose, the second and third fingers the lips, and a piece of cotton held between the third and fourth fingers makes the whiskers.

The Devil's Own

A Romance of the Blackhawk War

By RANDALL PARRISH

Copyright by A. C. McClurg & Co.

Where I crouched in the shadows I could gain no glimpse of the approaching figures, but I heard the crunch of their boots on the gravel of the driveway, and a moment later the sound of their feet as they mounted the wooden steps. Kirby must have perceived the forms of the other men as soon as he attained the porch level, and his naturally disagreeable voice had a snarly ring.

"That you, Donaldson? Have either of those women come back?"

"No," and I thought the sheriff's answer was barely cordial. "We ain't seen nobody. What did you learn down at the Landin'?"

"Nothing," savagely. "Haven't found a d— trace except that Haines hasn't been home since before dark; some nigger came for him then. Is that girl safe inside?"

"Sure; just as you left her, but she won't talk. Tim tried her again, but it's no use; she wouldn't even answer him."

"Well, by Heaven! I'll find a way to make her open her mouth. She knows where those two are hiding. They haven't had no time to get far away, and I'll bring her to her senses before I am through. Come on, Carver; I'll show the wench who's master here, if I have to lick her like a common nigger."

The front door opened, and closed, leaving the two without standing in silence, the stillness between them finally broken by a muttered curse.

I drew back hastily, but in silence, eager to get away before the sheriff and his deputy should return to their seats by the porch rail. My original plan of warning the women of the house of their peril was blocked, completely overturned by the presence of these men. Beyond all question those

I had hoped to serve were already aware of their position—someone had reached them before me—and two at least were already in hiding. Why the third, the one most deeply involved, had failed to accompany the others, could not be comprehended. The mystery only made my present task more difficult. Why should Delia, the slave, disappear in company with Eloise, the free, and leave her own daughter Rene behind to face a situation more terrible than death? I could not answer these questions; but whatever the cause the result had been the complete overthrow of the gambler's carefully prepared plans. Not that I believed he would hesitate for long, law or no law; but Donaldson, the sheriff, refused to be a party to any openly illegal act, and this would for the present tie the fellow's hands. Not until Miss Eloise was found and duly served with the eviction papers would Donaldson consent to take possession of a single slave. This might still give me time for action.

I slipped along in the shadow of the house, without definite plan of action but with a firm purpose to act. The side door I knew to be securely locked, yet first of all it was essential that I attain to the interior. But one means to this end occurred to me—the unshaded window through which the glow of light continued to stream. I found I could reach the edge of the balcony with extended fingers, and drew myself slowly up until I clung to the railing, with feet finding precarious support on the outer rim. This was accomplished noiselessly and from the vantage point thus obtained I was enabled to survey a large portion of the room.

I clambered over the rail, assured by the first glance that the room was empty, and succeeded in lifting the heavy sash a few inches without any disturbing noise. Then it stuck, and even as I ventured to exert my strength to greater extent to force it upward, the single door directly opposite, evidently leading into the hall, was flung violently open and I sank back out of view, yet instantly aware that the first party to enter was Joe Kirby. He strode forward to the table, striking the wooden top angrily with his fist and knocking something crashing to the floor.

"You know where she is, don't you?" he asked, in the same threatening tone he had used without.

"Of course I do; didn't I help put her there?" It was Carver who replied, standing in the open doorway.

"Then bring the hussy in here. I will make the wench talk if I have to choke it out of her; she'll learn what it means to be a nigger."

I had but a moment in which to observe the man, for almost immediately Carver flung the door of the room open and Kirby swung impatiently about to face the entrance. Except for a possibility of thus attracting the attention of the newcomer I was in no special danger of being detected by those within. Carver thrust round, full throat, and the figure of young womanhood, slender and yet softly curved, altogether formed a picture so entrancing as to never again desert my imagination. With one bound my heart went out to her in sympathy, in admiration, in full and complete surrender. Before I could change posture, almost before I could draw fresh breath, her voice, trembling slightly with an emotion she was unable wholly to suppress, yet sounding clear as a bell, addressed the man confronting her.

"May I ask, sir, what this outrage means? I presume you are responsible for the insolence of this fellow who brought me here?" Kirby laughed but not altogether at ease.

"Well, not altogether," he answered, "as his methods are entirely his own. I merely told him to go after you."

"For what purpose?" "So pretty a girl should not ask that. Carver, close the door and wait outside."

I could mark the quick rise and fall of her bosom and the look of fear she was unable to disguise. Yet not a limb moved as the door closed, nor did the glance of those brown eyes waver.

"You are not the same man I met before," she began doubtfully. "He said he was connected with the sheriff's office. Who are you?"

"My name is Kirby; the sheriff is here under my orders."

"Kirby!—the—gambler?"

"Well, I play cards occasionally, and you have probably heard of me before. Even if you never had until tonight it is pretty safe to bet that you do now."

"I know," she admitted, "that you won this property at cards and have now come to take possession. Is that what you mean?"

"That, at least, is part of it," and he took a step toward her, his thin lips twisted into a smile. "But not all. Perhaps Donaldson failed to tell you the rest, and left me to break the news. Well, it won't hurt me any. Not only this plantation is mine, but every nigger on it as well. You are Rene Beauchaire?"

"Yes," she replied, slowly, almost under her breath, and hesitating ever so slightly. "I am Rene Beauchaire."

"And you don't know what that means, I suppose?" he insisted savagely, angered by her coolness. "Perhaps the sheriff did not explain this. Do you know who and what you are?"

She rested one hand on the table in support, and I could note the nervous trembling of the fingers, yet her low voice remained strangely firm.

"I know," she said distinctly, "I am no longer a free white woman; I am a negro and a slave."

"Oh, you know that, do you? Then you must also be aware that you are my property. Perhaps it will be well for you to remember this in answering my questions. Now tell me who informed you of all this?"

"I cannot answer."

"Cannot! You mean you will not. Well, young woman, I'll find means to make you, for I have handled your kind before. Where is Eloise Beauchaire?"

"Why do you seek to find her? There is no slave blood in her veins."

"To serve the necessary papers, of course."

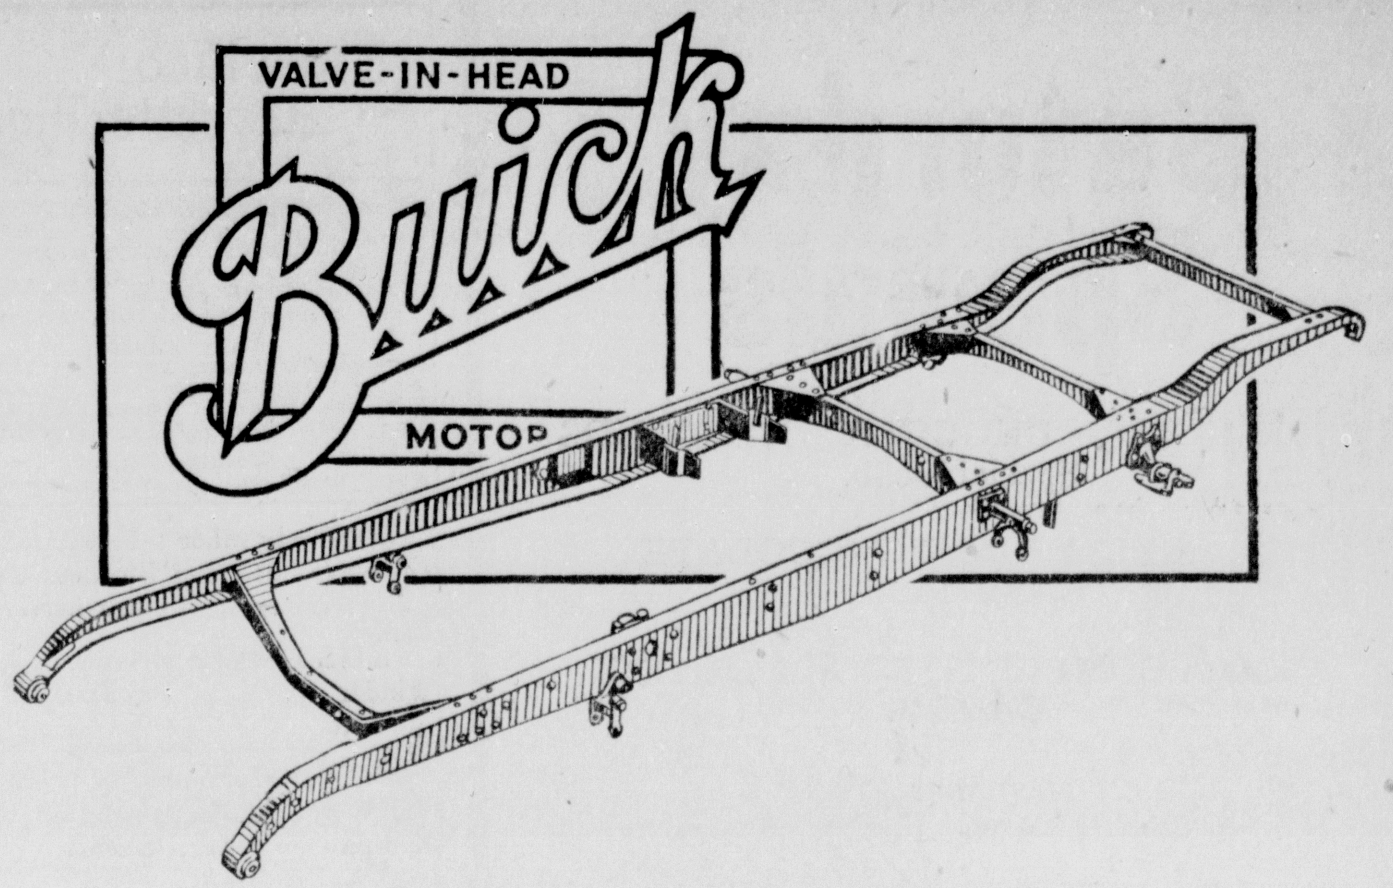

He spoke incautiously, urged on by his temper, and I marked how quickly her face brightened at this intelligence.

"To serve papers! They must be served, then, before—before you can take possession? That is what I understood the sheriff to say. Then I am not really your slave—yet?" her voice deepening with earnestness and understanding. "Oh, so that is how it is—even if I am a negro I do not belong to you until those papers have been served. If you touch me now you break the law. I may not be free but I am free from you. I am glad to know that!"

"And d—n little good it is going to do you," he growled. "Sheriff or no sheriff, my beauty, you are going to St. Louis with me tonight; so I advise you to keep a grip on that tongue of yours. Do you think I am going to be fooled altogether by a technical point of law? Possession is the main thing, and I have you where you can't get away. You hear me?"

She had not moved, although her form had straightened and her hand no longer rested on the table. Kirby had stepped close in front of her, his eyes glowing with anger, his evident intention being to thus frighten the girl into compliance with his wishes, but her eyes, defiant and unafraid, looked him squarely in the face.

"I certainly hear," she replied calmly. "Your voice is sufficiently distinct. I am a slave, I suppose, and

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Key West, Fla.—"For five years I suffered from irregularities, with terrible pains and an awful weakness in my back. The doctor gave me different medicines but they did me no good. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I found it to be the best medicine I ever tried because it made me well, and I can now do my housework. I am telling my friends about it."—Mrs. J. M. CAMUS, 726 Caroline St., Key West, Florida.

Many women at some period in their life suffer from ailments peculiar to their sex and which in most cases may be readily relieved by this famous root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, just as Mrs. Camus found it helped her after suffering for years and trying everything else in vain.

If you have any annoying symptoms you fail to understand, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The results of their 40 years experience in advising women on this subject is at your service.

Carver Thrust Her Forward, but Remained Himself Blocking the Doorway.

her forward but remained himself blocking the doorway. I use the word thrust, for I noted the grip of his hand on her arm, yet in truth she instantly stepped forward herself, her bearing in no way devoid of pride and dignity, her head held erect, her eyes fearlessly seeking the face of Kirby. Their glances met, and she advanced to the table, the light of the swinging lamp full upon her. The impression she made is with me yet. Hers was a refined, patrician face, crowned by a wealth of dark hair. Indignant eyes of hazel brown, shadowed by long lashes, brightened a face whitened by intense emotion, and brought into agreeable contrast flushed cheeks and red, scornful lips. A dimpled chin, a

The judge is a friend of mine." "It is not the sheriff—nor the judge; I place reliance on no friend of yours." (TO BE CONTINUED)

COULD HARDLY

EAT ANYTHING

Before Taking Meritone Would Live on Toast and Coffee Days at Time.

"My appetite was so poor that I would go two or three days without eating anything but toast and coffee," said Mrs. Lulie Neal, of 172 North Lime Street, Lexington, Ky.

"I was nervous and couldn't sleep well and had suffered from constipation for eight or ten years. In fact, my whole system was run down and I could hardly attend to my household duties."

"One day my son, who is a stage manager at one of the local theaters, brought home a bottle of Meritone for me to try."

"I took it and it built up my whole system. My nerves are in better shape and I can sleep better and my appetite is so good that I just can't get enough to eat. The constipation is almost entirely gone also."

"I want all my friends to know about Meritone, for it has surely helped me."

Meritone is the tonic of real merit that has built up the systems of thousands of people in all parts of the country.

Meritone is sold exclusively in Seymour by Maxon's Pharmacy.

WASH DAY AND SMILES

Little Filipino Girls Helping to Do the Family Washing

Their laundering methods are native Philippine, but their smile is pure American, learned along with a lot of other American tricks from missionaries from the United States. Playgrounds, games and toys have been exported by the States to the Philippine children as fitting accompaniments to school and Sunday school, and so it is that Uncle Sam has become a veritable Santa Claus; and a missionary is a flesh-and-blood Prince Charming in the eyes of the youthful Filipinos. In order to develop the work of educating and Christianizing the people of the Philippines, as well as other important social and spiritual activities, the Episcopal Church will launch a Nation-wide Campaign for $42,000,000 and 1,500 new workers on December 7.

FARMERS OBJECT TO PROMISCUOUS HUNTING

Hunting License Does Not Carry The Right to Trespass Over Farm Lands.

Diligent use has been made by hunters of the open law for game during the last two or three weeks. Some hunters, however, have apparently taken their hunting license as granting the privilege to hunt where and when they please. This has called out objections on the part of many farmers especially those who have their lands posted. The hunting license, of course, does not give a hunter a right to trespass on any man's farm. Even if the farm is not posted the courteous thing to do is to secure the privilege from the farmer for hunting on his place. It has been customary for so many years for persons going through the country to feel that open fields are privileged land that it is difficult to realize the new conception that farm lands are really private property and that the law does not give one a greater privilege to trespass in the country than it gives over town lots in the city. As a rule farmers are ready to grant the hunting privilege to their friends but they do not like to have everyone hunting on their lands. The objection has been especially strong because of the carelessness of a few hunters in leaving gates open or injuring livestock by careless shooting. Thoughtfulness on the part of hunters will do much to increase the kindly feeling of farmers toward the followers of Nimrod.

Muslin Signs, "NO HUNTING NOR TRESPASSING" for posting your farm, 10c each, 90c per dozen, at Republican Office.

LADY SWAYTHLING

Lady Swaythling, who is making a tour of America with her husband, is one of the handsomest women in British society. This is her first visit to the United States. In Washington she was the guest of Mme. Slavko Grouitch, wife of the minister from Serbia.

The Gentleman Habitant.

The habitant of Lower Canada came habitier le pays (to inhabit the land), and he was true to his title. No transient dweller he. Nor did the spirit of noblesse oblige that he brought from the Old World easily die.

Long after 37, writes Mesdames Lizaris in their interesting book, Habits of 37, a court dignitary found himself in a remote neighborhood where there were no tavern accommodations. Arrangements were made for him to stay at the unpretentious home of a small farmer.

When the dignitary arrived, the hab-doer, opened wide in welcome, disclosed an old man in antique jacket, smutted clothes and buckles, whose fine white hair, lying on his collar, was stirred by the night breeze. The dark hallway made a dim background for the old man and his ancient silver candlesticks, as, with a light in each hand, he bowed profoundly, walking backward as his guest entered.

The guest remonstrated at the attention so shown him.

"Sir," said the old man courteously in refined French "I but follow the customs of my fathers."

GAVE NAME TO TOLL ROADS

To Weapon Carried by Collectors Can Be Traced the "Turnpike" of Modern Days.

Undoubtedly the name turnpike, as applied to some roads, comes from the fact that pikes or gates were set across the roads by the keeper or toll-collector. In addition to collecting tolls, it was a part of the toll-keeper's business to keep the road in repair. His wages and other expenses for doing this were received from the tolls collected from the people who used the road to ride on in carriages, wagons, etc. The Book of Wonders, published and copyrighted by the Bureau of Industrial Education, Inc., Washington, D. C., says that in the early days the toll-collector was armed with a pike, a long-handled weapon with a sharp iron head which he used to prevent people who traveled his road from going by without giving up their toll. Later on a swinging gate was built across the road, which made it unnecessary to use the pike, though the name was retained, for no one could pass while the gate barred the way. When the passerby had paid his tolls, the toll-collector opened the gate and let him pass. If he did not pay, the gate remained closed and the driver had to turn back or decide to pay. Hence comes the name turnpike. In some parts of the country they call these highways toll roads.
